

A Dream Deferred

“You feel like you lose your dream. When you go to school, you come out with a purpose, with a dream. Am I right? And your dream is probably to marry, have a kid or two, have a nice home, all this good stuff.”
(Survivor of gun violence)

“I missed out on life... I couldn't work, I couldn't get a job because of the severity of the injury... It kept me from doing a lot of things. Like I said, all it did was make me go deeper into the criminal lifestyle.”
